Sunday’s Dan Patch Dinner
To Be Streamed Live

And the winner of the E. Roland Harriman Award as the 2017 Horse of the Year is ..........
At approximately 10 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 25, emcees Roger Huston and Jason Settlemoir will fill in the blank at the annual U.S. Harness Writers Association’s Dan Patch Awards banquet at Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, Fla.
If you aren’t among the attendees at the dinner you can still watch the big announcement—as well as that of Trotter of the Year and Pacer of the Year—as the entire awards ceremony, sponsored by Weaver Bruscemi LLC and Ron Burke, will be broadcast live on USHWA’s Facebook page, which can be accessed here. The entire video will also be available on the U.S. Trotting Association’s YouTube page the following day, Monday, Feb. 26.
Post time for the evening is 6 p.m. with a one-hour cocktail reception sponsored by the Downbytheseaside Syndicate getting things underway.
A special guest will be Ric “The Nature Boy” Flair, considered by many to be the greatest professional wrestler of all-time. Flair is attending the Dan Patch Awards dinner as a guest of one of the honorees and will also be meeting and greeting attendees on the Dan Patch Red Carpet, sponsored by Hoosier Park.
Also starring on USHWA’s version of the Red Carpet will be Heather Vitale and Heather Wilder, with the two Heathers broadcasting live on their individual Facebook pages. It’s your guarantee to see what the attendees have to say about the festivities.
As part of the evening, a silent auction will be held, which shapes up to be the largest in the history of the event. There are nearly 30 unique items available, including great vacation and racing packages, superb artwork, special collectables, gift certificates, media services and even private handicapping lessons.
We would like to thank all who voted Bruce Trogdon’s Emerald Highlands Farm to be the Dan Patch Owner Of The Year in 2017. Obviously, Dan Patch Trainer Of the Year Brian Brown and his entire team had a little something to do with that. Particularly...

Rick Groves (groom for the multiple Grand Circuit stakes and North America Cup champion Fear The Dragon and for Indiana Sire Stakes 2YO Colt Pace champion Always Bet De Grey), Kim Carothers (groom for Dan Patch 3YO Filly Pacer of the Year and Breeders Crown champion Blazin Britches), Carrie Cameron (groom for Indiana Sire Stakes 2YO Filly Pace Champion Always Woggy), and Sydney Rain Williams (groom for Arden Downs stake winner Whatstroublnurocky).

Special thanks to our primary stable and “Britches” regular driver, superstar Trace Tetrick and to “Dragon’s” regular driver - the incomparable David Miller (who also put the mark on Britches), plus Peter Wrenn for “Grey.”

Of course the biggest thanks goes to the real superstars - our horses themselves. No one could be prouder of them than the entire staff at our farm, who all had a hand in raising them. We are extremely proud that All were born and raised at

Safe From Terror On Schedule For Blue Chip Matchmaker

Nominations close March 1 for the George Morton Levy Memorial and Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, both at Yonkers Raceway, with the first legs set for the weekend of March 16-17. With a nomination fee of $4,000 for mares and $5,000 for the guys, quite a few horses are being tested to see if they are worth the nominating fee.

One of those mares is Safe From Terror, and she has passed the test with flying colors. The 6-year-old daughter of Western Terror won last Friday’s $40,000 Open Pace for mares at Yonkers and she’s back in to go this Friday, again in the top class.

Safe From Terror is now trained by Rob Harmon, who has 36 in the northeastern division of his stable at the Mark Ford Training Center. He’s only raced Safe From Terror three times and she has delivered two seconds and the win last Friday night.

“I didn’t need to change a thing with her,” said Harmon. “They sent her equipment with her and that’s the way she races.

“She’s not quick off the gate, but then she gets going in the second quarter,” added Harmon. “She is a small-sized mare but has a big gait.”

Eric Goodell drove Safe From Terror to victory at Yonkers last Friday and has the assignment this Friday as well. But Harmon said he’s not sure the mare will have a regular driver.

“I was hoping Jordan (Stratton) would drive her, but he’s committed to (Peter) Tritton’s horses,” said Harmon. “So we have committed to nobody and nobody has committed to us.”

Harmon is handling Safe From Terror for Daniel Telle’s Big Bad DT Racing Stable. Telle’s father, Ed, campaigns horses under the banner of Winchester Baye Acres and was previously down as the owner of the mare.

“I’m almost 71 and Daniel is 25, and the best thing to do is to pass the baton,” said Ed of the ownership change. “This mare will race another year or two and then she’ll be making babies, so she’s a good horse to have for your first.”

In addition to becoming an owner of his first horse, Daniel is also working on the marketing team at the Meadowlands.

Safe From Terror sports career earnings of $931,207 and a lifetime mark of 1:50.3f, taken at age four when she was trained by Ron Burke. She has earned $447,585 for the Telle family since she was purchased for $210,000 in November 2015 from a Burke partnership.

“We’re anxious for her to hit $1 million, and she’s staked to everything this year except the two races for mares in Canada,” said Ed.

Earlier this year Ed bought another horse from the Burke group, the 4-year-old male pacer Miso Fast, for $250,000.

“I think he’ll train in 2:20 this week and we’ll keep dropping him down, and he will probably qualify twice and race twice at Pompano before we ship him north,” said Ed. “He’s got the Graduate on May 7, but he’s very lightly staked because the 4 year olds can’t compete with older horses. It’s just too tough.”

While Safe From Terror would be the first million-dollar winner owned by the Telle family, she hasn’t yet delivered the Telles their biggest victory in harness racing. That feat came compliments of Big Bad John, who won 2011 Little Brown Jug.

The Telles still own Big Bad John, who stands at stud at Midland Acres in Ohio, but the stallion won’t be mated with Safe From Terror because “John” is a son of Western Hanover and “Terror” is by Western Hanover’s son Western Terror.

“When it comes time to breed her, she’ll be going to Sweet Lou,” said Ed. “She’s got a rear-end on her that’s about 3 ½ feet wide, so they are going to make a beautiful baby together.” — By Kathy Parker

David Miller Plans To Return To Driving In Late March

Yannick Gingras and Tim Tetrick have returned to driving at the Meadowlands, but it will be another month before Hall of Famer David Miller is back in action in New Jersey.

Miller and his wife, Misty, recently returned from a 28-day trip that took them to New Zealand, Australia and Japan. The Millers traveled with their friends, horseman Nifty Norman, a native of New Zealand, and his wife, Robyn.

Packed in the Miller’s luggage was the Hall of Famer’s driving suit and helmet.

“I was planning to drive a few races,” said David. “Before we left, Nifty told me people were going to put me down on some horses. I was OK with it but I didn’t think I’d drive as many as I did.”

In New Zealand, Miller drove a winner at Addington Park on Jan. 26, winning a 1,950-meter race (1.2 miles) with the 3-year-old trotter Show Gait (Majestic Son-Sierra Roydon-Sierra Kosmos). Miller had six drives on the card and also picked up a second. The next day he won a race over a grass surface at Motukarara. The race also featured a standing start.

When Miller got to the Melton track near Melbourne, Australia, for the big Hunter Cup program, he was in much more familiar territory as the oval is comparable to the seven-eighths mile Mohawk track, with sweeping turns.

Miller drove in seven races at Melton, picking up a win and two fourth-place finishes.

Most of the races Miller drove in were contested at distances greater than one mile.

“I had driven at the Moonee Valley track in Melbourne back in 1999, but still I had no idea how far I had to go in these races,” he said. “I just waited to hear the bell lap.”

Miller said he and his wife thoroughly enjoyed the 28-day trip, which included sightseeing on both the North Island and South Island of New Zealand, where they saw the Franz Josef Glacier. They flew to Melbourne and visited the area before heading to Australia’s famed beaches on the Gold Coast. Before the Millers caught their last flights to return to the U.S. and their winter home near the Southern Oaks Training Center in Florida, the group stopped in Tokyo for more sightseeing.

“I think we went through six different time changes,” said David. “When we got back, I didn’t feel right and couldn’t sleep. It took me a few days to get back to normal.”

The Millers are training two horses at Southern Oaks, both colts from their world champion mare Autumn Escapade, who died in April 2016 after foaling a colt they named JB Escapade. While they were traveling Hall of Famer Ron Waples handled their barn work.

“We have a 3-year-old colt by Donato (Hanover) and a 2-year-old colt by Andover (Hall),” said David. “We really wanted a filly, and neither of these colts are anything like the mare. The breeding business is tough.” — By Kathy Parker

Trace Tetrick’s Star Rises To New Heights

Trace Tetrick will head to Orlando this weekend to receive harness racing’s Rising Star Award, and even if he stops off at a nearby theme park it will be difficult to top the ride he enjoyed in 2017.

Tetrick, a 31-year-old driver who grew up in Illinois and now calls Indiana home, set career highs with 569 wins and $6.81 million in purses. He cracked North America’s top 10 in victories for the first time, finishing fourth, and was No. 11 in North America for earnings, another lifetime best.

Interestingly, nine of the drivers ahead of him on the money list were former Rising Star Award winners, including his older brother, Tim. The award, presented by the U.S. Harness Writers Association, recognizes early career achievement for a driver or trainer age 35 or younger.

Tetrick, who has won 4,443 races and $45 million in purses lifetime, will receive his trophy during Sunday’s Dan Patch Award banquet at Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando.

“It’s a great privilege to be honored in that category and to be invited to be a part of that event,” Tetrick said. “It was probably my best year overall. The highlight, I’d say, was the Breeders Crown. To be in the Breeders Crown again and get a couple wins was great.”

Tetrick won Breeders Crown finals with Blazin Britches (3-Year-Old Filly Pace) and Fiftydollarbill (2-Year-Old Colt Trot). He also captured three Indiana Sires Stakes championships, two Kentucky Sire Stakes championships, and one Ohio Sire Stakes championship. In those eight victories, Tetrick drove the favorite only once.

“I guess it was being in the right spots at the right time, being lucky,” Tetrick said. “Everybody is looking to beat the favorites. When you’re not the favorite, you can kind of run under the radar. But whether you’re the favorite or not, you’re just trying to put your horse in the best possible spot to make money. If things work out to where you get all of it, that’s even better.”

Tetrick was the regular driver of Blazin Britches, who will receive the Dan Patch Award for best 3-year-old female pacer. The filly was trained by Brian Brown, who will receive the Trainer of the Year Award, and owned by Bruce Trogdon’s Emerald Highlands Farm, which will get the Owner of the Year trophy.

Tetrick, Brown and Trogdon also won an Indiana Sire Stakes championship together last year with Always Bet De Grey and enjoyed success previously with Color’s A Virgin, who received the Dan Patch Award for best 3-year-old female pacer in 2014.

“Brian and Bruce Trogdon have been very good to me and things have worked out,” Tetrick said. “It’s great to have the opportunity with those guys.” (Ken Weingartner/USTA)

DarbyWars, horse racing’s leading contest site, will host a WHHC Mega-Qualifier on Saturday (Feb. 24) featuring five qualifying spots for the $75,000-guaranteed World Harness Handicapping Championship presented by DarbyWars.
The WHHC Mega-Qualifier entry fee is $115, with the five WHHC qualifying spots based on 50 entries. The contest will consist of the second half of the races at partner tracks the Meadowlands and Woodbine. The format is a mythical $2 Win-Place-Show contest, where players will pick one horse in each race over 12 races and earn payouts equivalent to $2 Win-Place-Show payouts at the track, subject to maximum payouts.
Players may qualify for as little as $19 every night on DarbyWars.com, or on Saturday night during the early races. A full list of qualifiers for the WHHC Mega-Qualifier and the WHHC can be found at https://www.derbywars.com/tournaments/list/whhc.
The World Harness Handicapping Championship presented by DarbyWars will be held April 28 at the Meadowlands. Players can qualify for the WHHC online at DarbyWars, at Meadowlands racetrack, or at various racetrack qualifiers. The $1,000 WHHC entry includes a $300 live bankroll with $700 to the prize pool and zero takeout. There is a limit of two entries per person. If the contest exceeds 107 entries, the prize pool will increase from $75,000.
DarbyWars hosts WHHC qualifiers every Saturday night for the 2018 WHHC. The list of players already qualified can be found here.

TVG, America’s Horseracing Network and premier advance deposit wagering (ADW) platform, is also playing host to a major qualifying event as part of the World Harness Handicapping Championship.
The TVG qualifier will take place Saturday, March 3, and requires players to make ten $10 win and place wagers on any races from the Meadowlands, Woodbine, Yonkers and Cal Expo. The contest is open to all TVG/4NJBets/PABets customers. New customers can sign up for an account by visiting TVG.com.
The contest will award three spots to the $75,000 World Harness Handicapping Championship, the largest tournament in the industry, on April 28, 2018 at the Meadowlands Racetrack. Each spot includes the $1,000 entry fee and bankroll plus travel expenses and hotel accommodations. Cash prizes will also be awarded to contestants finishing in fourth place through ninth place ranging from $500 up to $1,000.
More information on the 2018 WHHC can be found at the Meadowlands’ website. Contest standings will be updated throughout the contest on a live leaderboard on the website.
